

Of course we can all agree that Californians deserve protection from eminent domain abuse. And, if Prop. 90 was a well-designed reform of eminent domain, many thoughtful Californians would support it.

However, the out-of-state drafter of Prop. 90 is attempting a bait and switch on voters. This poorly-written proposition is loaded with unrelated and far-reaching provisions that will harm, not protect, homeowners, and be very expensive for all California taxpayers.

We can't afford to be misled.

The hidden provisions in Prop. 90 create a new category of lawsuits that allow wealthy landowners and corporations to sue for huge new payouts. These lawsuits and payouts would cost California taxpayers billions of dollars every year.

That's why groups representing taxpayers, homeowners, businesses, police and fire, environmentalists and farmers all urge you to Vote NO on 90.

THE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF CALIFORNIA says: "Prop. 90 would fundamentally change our system of representative democracy and put the interests of a few above the well-being of ALL Californians."

Prop. 90 is anti-taxpayer and anti-homeowner.

That's why THE LEAGUE OF CALIFORNIA HOMEOWNERS OPPOSES PROP. 90 and says: "Prop. 90 is a trap that actually hurts homeowners. It would cost taxpayers billions and erode basic laws that protect our communities, our neighborhoods and the value of our homes."

Say NO to the Taxpayer TRAP. Vote NO on 90.
